SEARCH NOTES FOR CLASS D6

(1) For merchandise display panel, see subclasses 449+.
 (2) For swing or rocker, see subclass 344+. For rocking horse or rocking toy see D21-416+. For chair without provision for restraint, see subclasses 334+.
 (3) For leg, see subclass 495+. For ham-mock, see subclass 387.
 (4) For seating unit convertible to bed, see other subclasses indented under subclass 334.
 (5) For juvenile high chair, see subclass 339.
 (6) For elevator seat without provision for work surface, see other subclasses indented under subclass 334.
 (7) For end frame, see subclasses 492+.
 (8) For freestanding apparel support, see subclasses 411+.
 (9) Exclusive of upholstery fabric.
 (10) For bench type seating unit with arm-rest, see subclass 355. For straddle type seat, see subclass 354.
 (11) For step ladder, see D25-65.
 (12) Exclusive of upholstery fabric.
 (13) Includes humanoid.
 (14) For chair combined with distinct foot rest, see subclass 335.
 (15) If seating unit is upholstered, it is classified below.
 (16) Runners which are laterally joined at all extremities this forming a boxed or enclosed base are not considered to be distinct runners.
 (17) Includes infant dressing table or bathing unit.
 (18) For seating unit convertible to bed, see subclasses identified under subclass 382.
 (19) For infant dressing or bathing surface, see subclass 382.
 (20) If lamp is concealed to illuminate contents, classified with specific furniture article below.
 (21) If lamp is concealed to illuminate contents, classified with specific furniture article below.

- (22) If plant container is disclosed, classified as a planter in D11-143+. For wall-mounted type, see subclasses 556+.
- (23) For food type tray, see D7-550.1+. For vehicle mounted or attached storage compartment or beverage holder, see D12-415+.
- (24) For photograph slide projector magazine or cartridge, see D16-236.
- (25) For clothing support, see subclass 411.
- (26) For support wherein article of apparel is supported upon a shelf, bracket, etc., see subclasses 449+. For enclosed cabinet, see subclasses 432+.
- (27) For freestanding carrel type telephone enclosure, see subclass 421. For wall-mounted telephone enclosure, see subclasses 553+.
- (28) For bookend, see D19-34.1+. For easel or bookrest type support, see subclasses 300+.
- (29) For furniture with inclined display or storage surface, see subclasses 436+ or 449+.
- (30) For desk with tambour closure, see subclass 424.
- (31) If storage area is not indicated, classified as a table in subclasses 480+.
- (32) Exclusive of auxiliary sliding shelf.
- (33) Exclusive of mirror.
- (34) For pivoted display panels, see subclass 454.
- (35) To be classified in this and in indented subclasses, there must be a clear indication of access to the contents e.g., door or corresponding hardware. If glass panels permit viewing contents, article is classified in subclasses 449+.
- (36) Includes humanoid.
- (37) Sole top surface not considered.
- (38) For extending surface such as leaf, see subclass 430.
- (39) Includes humanoid.
- (40) For table or singular planar surface, see subclasses 480+.
- (41) Excludes wire shelf in showcase type; see subclasses 470+.
- (42) For shelf or bin, see subclasses 475+.
- (43) Aperture must have appearance characteristics of a surround for a transparent panel; for shelf unit lacking same, see following subclasses.
- (44) For bin or table having plural parallel support surfaces, see subclasses 449+. For accessory work surface such as tray for chair, or top per se, see subclasses 509+. For table with extending or drop leaf; see subclass 430.
- (45) If storage area is disclosed, classified in subclasses 432+ or 449+.
- (46) For general purpose hardware such as caster, hinge, knob, etc., see class D8.
- (47) Includes furniture door. For bed headboard, see subclasses 505+.
- (48) For hardware type item such as leg end cap, ferrule, caster, etc., D8-374+.
